WILLIMANTIC FOR FIRE CHIEF.

Two Companies Are Booming Herbert W. Clark.

Now that the city election is over-the important question is the appoint-ment of chief of the fire department. Willimantic has been particularly fortunate in the past two years in so-far as really bad fires have been fac-tors that have not had to be fought.

Two of the four companies of the department have already recommend-ed the same man for chief of the de-partment, and that man is Herbert W. partment, and that man is Herbert W. Clark, at present a member of the board of fire engineers. The companies that have recommended his appointment are the Excelsior hook and ladder company, of which Mr. Clark has been a member for years, and considered by all to have been the best foreman that the company ever had, and Montgomery hose company, No. 2. The other two companies, the Alerts and the Hilltops, have not made any recommendations.

One thing why the Excelsion hook and ladder company is so anxious to have one of its men at the head of the department is the fact that it has not had a chief for twenty-one years. The Hooks are the oldest company in the department. The members of that company, which is a republican organization, though impartial, are willing to sacrifice politics for the best interests of the city as a whole, and Finger Badly Cut. Joseph Turcotte, 39 Brook street, who is employed in the spool shop of the American Thread company, met with a painful accident shortly after 7 o'clock Friday morning, having his right hand caught in a machine, and the Index finger badly cut. Surgical attendance was necessary, as the bone was practically severed. It is believed that he will not lose his finger.

Successful Bazaar at M. E. Vestry. Friday evening the two days' baz-aar given by the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church in the vestry was concluded. The attendance each afternoon and evening was gratifying and a substanial sum was realized as a result of the venture.

DEAD MAN'S IDENTITY. May Be Established Through Facts Gained from Local Syrian.

Mrs. Ellen Thompson leaves today to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Chamberlain of New Ha-There is hope that the man found dead near East Killingly on Wednes-day afternoon may be identified. It has been learned that the man stayed a Syrian family on Water street. One of the male members of the family where he stayed has viewed the body and identified him as the man given a lodging in his home, but he does not know his name. He says, however, that the dead man was a mill worker, an Englishman, and that his home is probably in Fall River. It is believed that the man at least may have relatives in the city mentioned and inquiry was made there Friday afternoon in an endeavor to establish that fact.

DESERTER SURRENDERS. Hunger, Cold and Fatigue Have Their Effect on George B. Gordon.

George B. Gordon, 23, one of Uncle Sam's sallors, off the training ship Cumberland stationed at Newport, spent Thursday in a cell in the local police station awaiting some one to come and take him back to his nice warm berth, which he left without leave on last Sunday. Gordon ran into such rough weather since he got ashore that life on a good staunch ship in a snug harbor looks better to him now than it did. He surrendered himself to Chief Pilling and asked that officer to notify Newport that he was ready to come home.

officer to notify Newport that he was ready to come home.
Gordon and two companions were given shore leave for about five hours on Sunday, but they drank freely ashore and decided not to go back. They went from Newport to Fall River and from that city to Providence. There Gordon sold his uniform and after sleeping in boiler houses and wherever else he would be let, he took to the highway and walked to Danielson. He arrived here very much subdued after his forty-mile hike. He was cold, hungry, tired and very much disappointed. He told Chief Pilling that he had not had anything to eat on the entire trip from Providence, being at least too proud to beg. He is a clean-cut youngster and says his home is in Michigan City, North Dakota. He has relatives there, but left them nine months ago to try life in the navy, which is not so bad, he says. Gordon is now wearing an old coat and sweater and as abbreviated pair of bine overalls. He looks the part of a horse rake sailor. Gordon says he is sure to lose three months' pay and to get a good going-over besides when he gets back to Newport.

DRIVEN FROM HOME. Joseph Doyle, 22, Told to Seek Fresh

Jooseph Doyle, 22, was chased out of Putnam Friday, after he had been up before the city court on a charge of vagrancy. Young Doyle has been loitering around Putnam since Thanksgiving time, and has been repeatedly warned by the police to get out of town. He neglected to obey, however, and when Sergeant Patrick Hayes saw him at the postoffice late Thursday night he locked him up. Doyle says his home is in Providence. He claims to have served some time in Brooklyn jail for beraking into a freight car at Central Village. The police here believe that Doyle is the youngster recently driven out of Willimantic by the police of that city.
